Romans 14 Study Guide

1. What insight, principle, or observation from the message did you find most helpful, most challenging, or most troubling? Please explain.

2. What's been the hardest part of the last six months for you? What are you most looking forward to about the "post-COVID" world?

3. Read Romans 14:1-15:2.

- a. Do you identify more with the "strong" or the "weak" person in this chapter?
- b. What are the issues you've struggled with most in this regard?

4. How were differences of conviction or opinion dealt with in your home growing up? How much do those patterns impact you today?

5. Read 1 Corinthians 8:1-13 and 10:31-33; jot down any observations or insights. What do these passages add to what we've already seen in Romans 14?

6. Read Matthew 18:15-20.

- a. What are some differences between the situation described in this passage, and what we see in Romans 14?
- b. What are some similarities?
- c. If we're struggling with another believer, how can you know when to take a Matthew 18 approach, and when to take a Romans 14 approach?

7. In light of the teaching of Romans 14, are there any changes you need to make in your attitude, words or behaviour towards

- a. your brothers and sisters in Christ, in general?
- b. a specific person?

Are there any specific actions you need to take in this regard?

8. As we think about meeting at NBC on Sunday mornings for the next while,

- a. What are you most looking forward to about this?
- b. Is there anything you're not looking forward to about this?
- c. How can this week's study help prepare our hearts for this new season?
