

TITUS 2:1-15

DISCUSSION GUIDE

Here are some questions and thoughts to help guide discussion:

1. What stood out to you from this Sunday's sermon? Was there anything that was new to you, or anything that surprised you?
2. How would you define grace? What are some other Scriptures that speak about grace? How does this week's passage influence your ideas about what grace is? Share about a time when you have experienced God's grace in your own life.
3. What was the special way that grace appeared in our passage? How is this grace different from the grace shown previously to Israel through the law?
4. We read in this week's passage that God's grace is training us. Why do we need to be trained to do these things, and why is it important to know that it is grace which trains us in these areas?
5. Read Luke 12:35-46. How are you doing with eagerly awaiting the return of Jesus Christ? Is it something you look forward to and think about routinely? Or does the thought of Christ's return often slip your mind? What can you do to think about and look forward to Christ's return more?
6. Look at Titus 2:13-14. What is the ultimate reason grace trains us to live godly lives? What does it mean that Jesus is redeeming and purifying for himself a people for his own possession?
7. On Sunday, we heard the term "good-works zealots." How zealous are you for doing good works? What can you be doing this week to develop an eagerness to do good works?
